11. I heal the entire evolutionary history of my soul, spanning millions of years. My physical evolution is in a healed state. I am liberated from my deep seated illusions about life and death and become totally free, accepting the Grace.
12. I prepare further for healing and illumination in the years 2010, 2011 and 2012 and thereafter, I individually and collectively enrich and purify the subtle matter concentrations within my own body, and within the body of our planet. I connect to my heart energy of Reiki and my Divine energy connection to the KQ force and like an embryo in the womb – gradually growing, ultimately awakening, I see all that I heal becomes full of the pure light.
13. I connect to the billions of particles of healing flowing through me – flowing through all the empty spaces bringing nourishment, I am vibrantly filled with cosmic life force and am capable right now and I am reflecting this consciousness into our environment and healing the future.
14. I am a body of cosmic light, living, breathing and inhaling the energy and then exhaling it back into the environment. This healing takes place through every pore, cell, molecule and atom of all my natural systems and my Divine connected systems.
15. I exchange the subtle presence of my healing personality with everything and everyone around me. I create a secret spiritual evolution, thus creating a self sufficient source of healing power. I attain self sufficiency in its purest form, always giving healing & love. I remember my Masters in gratefulness.
16. I accomplish the healing quickly when sacred energies are unleashed by the Masters. These are delivered to the human race, which then collectively raises my life force and moves me rapidly towards wellness and satisfaction. This exchange provides me a larger and larger reservoir of healing to dip into.
17. As the Divine, the light, and the Masters do their part, it is upto me to do mine. I transform myself gently and bring spiritual evolution to millions of people around the world as in every waking moment I remember and in every sleeping moment I remember more about healing.
18. I praise and feel gratitude for all the difficulties that come my way, and I communicate with the heart of the healing light. I focus on a gilded form of golden light and say thank you again and again as the light touches my path in 2010, 2011, 2012 and beyond – and I walk ahead on a cushion of golden light, spreading it to all living beings and into my life permanently.
19. I watch the gentle cracks appearing in all my obstacles, and the healing light dispersing and removing and erasing the blocks forever. Transforming everything to gold. Once again, I breathe the golden life force, its peace intensifies and a comforting warmth suffuses my heart. My hands start to tingle as I receive a gentle mist of golden rain. Soon the obstacles are completely dissolved in the rain of peace and I am enriched forever.
