

Message of the Masters - 2009

"Happy New Year"

Souls carry with themselves the seeds of instinct from previous lifetimes and through this get connected to healing. Souls appear with God's plan amidst us to touch the lives of other souls. Souls have past life instinct and conscience whispering in their ears, through dreams, longings and pangs.

At the other extreme are all healers whose lives have been so enriched and they have become so aware that they emit a brighter radiance. We all have through our varied experiences on earth discovered the most blissful feelings as we travel more deeply into the healing world and discover the super consciousness, overflowing with love and living in a state of Divine bliss.

As we walk ahead through another gateway, getting access to another corridor, we walk with compassion and soul consciousness and we continue the healing process to polish ourself during our journey on earth.

As we heal in the new year 2009, we will become more alive and aware as healers, we will soak in the pleasures of our world, we will look beyond. Our trained senses will pick up signals of the needs of others and then we will practice healing with compassion in a more diverse and deeper way. As a result, we will feel more alive to the world, ablaze with enthusiasm, fully ready and awakened to relish the opportunities of healing the world and the people in it.

What you make of your time on earth is upto you. Life is a journey of experiences for you as a healer. You will sift the chaff from the grain, cultivating, developing and expanding the healing work in 2009 and thus maturing to a higher spiritual level.

This is the year when you can heal, and experience rapture and bliss and continue on your lifetime journey of spiritual evolution, as you guide yourself forward. Give a healing helping hand to the suffering fallen souls as you move ahead and bring yourself to be useful to your fellowmen, to nature and the world at large.

As you move ahead in 2009 and beyond, you will experience a new tenderness in your heart, a glow and a sense of belonging which has no parallel.

Give a hug to get a hug
Give a healing to get a healing
Give a reward to get a reward
Give co-operation to get co-operation
Enjoy bliss and share the rapture of giving, sharing and caring

As you look upon the world with trust, patience and love, this is what will be beamed back at you.

When your healing heart is in the right place and your spirit is full of the light, a higher power, a pulsating energy of 2009 will take over and an invincible and unstoppable force will forge forward, removing your obstacles and nudging you in the right direction through the hands and the instrumentality of the Masters.

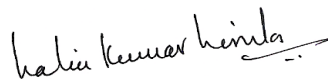

As you bathe in the soothing elixir of electrified purple and golden light, in wonderment you receive the grace and the love – which flows and pours courage onto your spirit through the heart of the Masters

Enriched, free and completely aware.

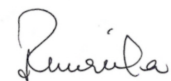

We bless you

Happy New Year

Blessings for one and all
